1. Message from Renato

The Insignia Financial Code of Conduct is an important statement about who we are as an organisation. The Code sets out the principles and standards of behaviour we expect of everyone at Insignia Financial – in everything we do, every day.

It is inextricably linked to our purpose – understand me, look after me, secure my future. We can't realise our purpose unless we adhere to the Code.

As CEO, I acknowledge my responsibility to lead by example. I am happy – indeed I welcome you – to judge me by the principles and standards in the Code. Likewise, the Code has been approved by the Insignia Financial Board and endorsed by the Executive Team – all of whom are committed to upholding it.

Ultimately, we are all leaders when it comes to the Code. Each of us should aspire to be the example others look towards. This requires action from everyone. It starts with reading the Code, not just this once, but regularly. Beyond this, we all need to actively demonstrate our principles and standards.

If you have any questions about the Code – please ask. There are lots of people here you can talk to about it, including me.

If you have a chance to discuss the Code with your colleagues – take it. People leaders, especially, should create opportunities to talk about our principles and standards with their teams.

If you see a breach of the Code – say something. At Insignia Financial, speaking up if you see something wrong is expected and respected. There are several ways of making a report. You have my word, you will be taken seriously and supported.

Within Insignia Financial, there are many businesses, individuals, roles and functions. This Code is our shared commitment to who we are as an organisation. I look forward to meeting it with you.

Renato Mota

Chief Executive Officer
Insignia Financial Ltd

2. Our Commitment

Insignia Financial’s Code of Conduct (Code) is the charter that we use to guide our professional interactions with each other. It shapes the expectations we have for our actions and for our behaviours. It’s underpinned by our principles – be human, deliver what matters, stronger together, keep it simple and do what’s right, not what’s easy – which are at the heart of everything we do.

Our strategy and people

Our Code was developed with input from our people and outlines the standards and principles we have agreed to adopt. As we work in our day to day roles to create financial wellbeing for every Australian, we all play a vital role in upholding the standards of the Code to ensure we meet the interests of our clients, the community and each other.

Connecting us

Our Code is not just another policy or procedure, it models how we display our principles. Our Code connects us, provides guidance on expected behaviours and represents our commitment to adhering to the highest standard of ethical conduct.

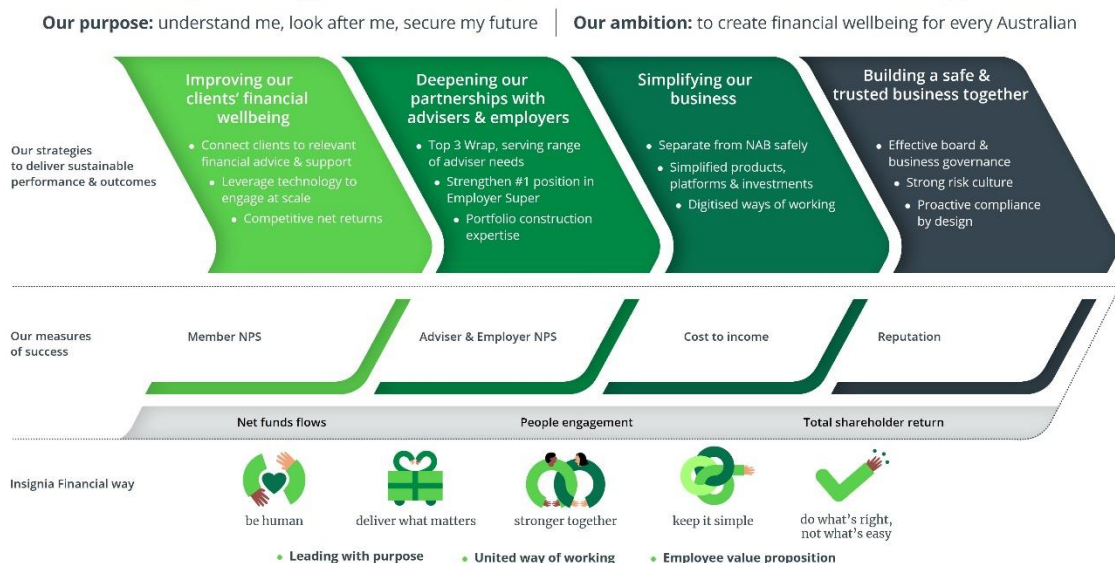

Our purpose

Understand me, look after me, secure my future

We recognise that living our principles and purpose means that we conduct ourselves and our business professionally and ethically. Our decisions and actions are shaped by the standards of our Code; our principles, behaviours and policies, underpinned by our strategic direction, which leads us to achieve our purpose. Core to our purpose is ensuring we meet the interests of our clients, deliver on our promises and commitments and strive to advance client outcomes in all that we do.

Insignia Financial’s strategy is about realising our purpose

3. Scope

Our Code applies to all of us. All directors, senior executives, employees, contractors and any other person employed by the Insignia Financial group of companies (employees) must be aware of and comply with our Code, policies, procedures, guidelines and legal obligations.

Our Code applies to Insignia Financial's business activities in Australia and should be observed in conjunction with legislative and operational obligations and relevant Insignia Financial Policies.

Our Code provides us with a common understanding of our principles and expected standards of behaviour. In the event of any inconsistencies between our Code's requirements and Insignia Financial's statutory duties, the latter shall prevail.

Our Code states basic expectations but does not cover every situation that may be encountered while working at Insignia Financial. In the absence of a specific direction, we have a responsibility to act in good faith, practice good judgment, comply with the spirit of the Code and to seek assistance from management, a member the Risk Management team, or a member of the People and Culture team where required.

4. Our Principles

Our principles underpin our Code, help us make better decisions and guide our behaviours. We must demonstrate actions and behaviours that are aligned to our principles every day.

Our principles are:

Deliver what matters

We make sure we understand what matters to every client and we make it happen.

Keep it simple

We remove complexity.

Do what's right, not what's easy

We back ourselves to make the right call. We speak up.

- ensure that we demonstrate active compliance with Insignia Financial's cybersecurity guidelines by following IT policies and reporting breaches and any other suspicious activity promptly to the Cybersecurity Team.

Please refer to Insignia Financial's Policies for more detailed information.

8. Compliance with our Code

Being aware of, and complying with, the laws and regulations under which we operate is a critical part of our business and is fundamental to who we are and what we represent.

To maintain the respect and confidence of our clients, which in turn protects our brand and our reputation, it is essential that we comply with the spirit of our Code as well as the letter of the law.

We are required to know, understand and comply with our Code, review it annually and whenever we are requested to do so. We are ultimately responsible for exercising good judgment and are encouraged to ask questions and seek clarification from the Executive Team, Risk Management team or our People and Culture team if needed.

Breaches of the Code

We are all responsible for building a sustainable business and for protecting Insignia Financial's reputation. We must promptly report any known or suspected breaches of our Code, other Insignia Financial Policies, or of any relevant law or regulation.

We are all accountable for our own actions, including for intentionally refraining from reporting the actions of another who we know is in breach, or who we suspect is in breach, of the Code.

Employees are encouraged to voice their concerns and to report instances where there are reasonable grounds to suspect unethical, illegal, fraudulent or undesirable conduct, without fear of intimidation, disadvantage or reprisal.

Insignia Financial will support and protect employees who, in good faith, report violations – however, it is considered a breach of our Code for an employee to make a deliberately false claim or report.

Employees may report breaches to their people leader, a member of the Risk Management function, or a member of the People and Culture team. Breaches of the Code of Conduct Policy are reported to the Board.

Employees may also report their concerns in accordance with the Whistleblower Policy which outlines the mechanisms in place for reporting matters and the measures in place to protect whistleblowers against reprisal or retaliatory action.

Compliance with the Code is a condition of our employment and failure to do so may constitute serious misconduct, could lead to disciplinary action or result in immediate termination of employment as well as legal proceedings.

Where to go for further support

Sometimes we face issues that we don't feel can be resolved using the organisational processes outlined in our Code.

Our Employee Assistance Program (EAP), a service run through TELUS Health, is a free and confidential counselling service available to all employees and their immediate families, to provide support for work-related or personal matters.

Our EAP can be contacted 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and provides telephone consultations, online information, resources and face-to-face counselling. More details are available on HQ, our intranet.
